Ten Rockefeller Plaza, Suite 1001
New York, NY 10020

Job Description: The Associate will work primarily on investment banking transactions in which either the client or potential M&A targets originate from China. Duties will include analyzing financial statements; constructing complex financial projection models; performing valuation analysis; writing investment and private placement memorandums; conducting financial and market analysis; researching companies and industries in the Asian region (mainly China, India, Taiwan and Japan); and some translating and summarizing of Chinese-language investment memorandums.

Location: Ten Rockefeller Plaza
Midtown Manhattan NYC

Qualifications: Class of 2008 or 2009 MBA from a top-tier institution with two to four years of pre-MBA experience in finance, banking or management consulting. Some prior work experience doing business in Asia would be a plus. Ideal candidate would have worked as an analyst at an investment bank before business school (preferably with M&A experience) and is now looking for a lifestyle change from traditional banking.

The Candidate MUST be proficient with financial statements, building financial projection models, and creating PowerPoint presentations. Attention to detail and excellent communication skills essential. NATIVE CHINESE written and oral fluency required.

Compensation: Commensurate with experience.

Job Type: Full-time. Immediate start date.
